GOVERNMENT WINS A. & G. V. ACTION

JUDGMENT RENDERED MR. JUSTICE STUART FAVORS THE GOVERNMENT

Affirms Validity of Act Passed by Sifton Government Appropriating Waterways Money Now on Deposit in the Royal Bank—Defendants to Appeal

Mr. Justice Stuart this morning handed down judgment in the supreme court in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway suit, adjudging the sum of $9,042,083.26, the proportion of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds of the railway company now on deposit in the Royal bank, to the government of the province of Alberta, with interest on the amount. The decision of the court is in favor of the government, and the full decision of the court is published in the issue of the paper of today.

The decision of Mr. Justice Stuart will not affect the disposition of the money until the case has been carried on appeal to the supreme court of Alberta on appeal, and to the privy council of the empire. Appeal will be filed by the defendants in the action in the course of a few days.

Two or even more years may elapse before the case is finally adjudicated upon by the highest authority in the empire, unless in the meantime the dominion government should intervene and disallow the legislation appropriating the Waterways money. The dominion government may also prevent the legislation within a period of twelve months from the date at which a copy of any provincial act is received at Ottawa. The copy of the Waterways act was not received until January 25 of this year, and should the dominion parliament intervene, Premier Sifton's bill may still be disallowed. If the act is allowed to stand until January 25, 1912, however, the question of the control of the money must inevitably be settled in the courts.

Upon the decision of the privy council in the suit between the province, the government and the railway and construction company, will depend the disposition of the $1,000,000 of Waterways funds deposited in the Union bank, $400,000 deposited in the Dominion bank, and subsequently paid into court by these custodians of the railway funds.

"Since the trial of this action I have been engaged at criminal cases in various parts of the province without a day's interruption and I have therefore found it impossible to give to the exhausted arguments which were presented to me that careful consideration which the magnitude of the issues involved in the case would reasonably demand. I see, however, no immediate prospects of these confusing duties ceasing at any early date, and I have therefore had to consider whether it is not rather in the interests of the public which is one of the parties to the suit in reality than some decision on my part should be no longer delayed so that the further proceedings which are certain to be taken may not be advanced to a conclusion that I should await a period of greater leisure for the purpose of attempting to examine minutely the arguments and authorities which are before me. I have decided that it is better that I should render a decision with much less consideration as I am now able to give the matter, particularly in view of the fact that the whole case is certain to be considered by one or more appellate courts where greater experience and ability if not greater knowledge will surely be brought to bear upon it."

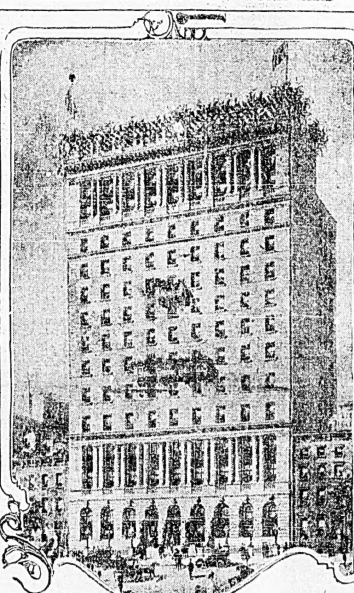

"I do not propose to set forth either in detail or at all the facts of the case. These are practically undisputed and well known to the parties interested."

"In view of the circumstances that one of the principle arguments relied upon by the defendants was based upon the contention that the legislative assembly of the province had no authority to extend its arm beyond the boundaries of the province and to affect by its enactments rights created, contracts made, and persons existing beyond those limits, it is pertinent to observe at the outset that the foundation of the state of affairs out of which the action arose was laid by a statute of the province being chapter 10 of the statutes of 1907, which began by declaring that two persons residing in Kansas City, in the state of Missouri, and one person residing in the province of Manitoba, should be a body corporate and politic under the name of 'The Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Company.'"

"Whatever view may be taken as to the nature of a corporation whether it be that it is the aggregation of the individuals composing it, or a 'fictional' district therefrom, it would seem clear that in doing this the legislature was, in some real sense, creating its own body within the boundaries of the province. Again, this statute authorized the company to issue bonds, to borrow money, and it was no doubt merely under the authority of this clause that the company undertook to do something in the city of New York or in the city of London, namely, sell the bonds and to the firm of J. S. Morgan and company."

"Furthermore, the bond was endorsed by the Standard Trust company, being the company selected by the legislative assembly of the province of Alberta, and the act, chapter 16 of the statutes of 1907, to be the trustee for the bond holders, and this act was apparently done in Winnipeg beyond the bor-

DOMINION WHEAT WINS SHAUGHNESSY'S GOLD

Alberta and Saskatchewan Exhibitors Tied for $1000 in Gold Offered for Best 100 Pounds of Wheat—B. C. Takes $1000 prize for Best Potatoes—Are Not Allowed to Compete in Other Classes—Americans Are Jealous

(Special to the Capital.)
New York, Nov. 6.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's prize of $1000 in gold will be awarded to a Canadian, and the judges are having difficulty in deciding whether it shall go to a Saskatchewan or an Alberta man, W. J. Glass, of McLeod, Alta., and Seager Wheeler, of Saskatchewan, being tied for the prize. The United States exhibits were totally outclassed and never had even a chance to win the prize, the highest exhibit losing out by over eighty points. British Columbia also wins $1000 and a gold cup for the best potatoes. American exhibitors are very jealous of the Canadians and have no hesitancy in stating that had the Canadian entries been allowed to compete the majority of the prizes would have gone across the line.

CYCLONES RAGING IN THE BRITISH ISLES

Coasts Are Struck with Wreckage—Many Houses Unroofed—Damage Not Estimated to Date

(Western Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 6.—Cyclonic gales swept over the British isles today doing widespread damage. Shipping particularly suffered. Buildings were unroofed and vessels were driven from the moorings. The coasts are strewn with wreckage. The channel market "grange" was unable to enter New Haven harbor and drifted about the channel until taken in tow by another steamer. Life belts had been distributed to the passengers.

Shanghai Headquarters Of the Rebel Movement

House to Meet on Nov. 30

At the close of a session of the executive council held at the buildings this morning the announcement was made that the legislature of the province will convene on Thursday, Nov. 30. It was generally believed by a number of members that the house would be called together not later than November 15, but this opinion was dispelled by the statement which emanated from the office of the premier today. It is rumored that Premier Sifton has a railway policy, which if adopted will mean the opening of the north country, and it is reported that this policy will be outlined in the speech from the throne. Of interest to Edmonton and Strathcona will also be the introduction of the amalgamation bill which provides for the joining of the two cities. A bill containing a single clause providing that the mayor and aldermen of the two cities shall hold office until after the passing of the amalgamation bill will be submitted at an early date.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 6.—Completion of the last link in transcontinental line of the Canadian Northern railway will confront twenty three companies of railway construction when they start upon their work of constructing their one hundred miles stretch up the North Thompson valley, the work entailing an expenditure of nearly five million dollars.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC RAGING AT TRIPOLI

Italian Commanders Scored for Failure to Adopt Usual Sanitary Measures—Turkish Battery, Shells Warships in Harbor—Situation is Misrepresented

London, Nov. 6.—A dispatch to the Times from Tripoli by way of Malta, criticizes the lack of enterprise in the leadership of the Italians who with a splendidly equipped force of 25,000 men amply armed, and a land and naval force, apparently are doing nothing. The Italian military authorities' action being worse than it was a month ago, as cholera of a malignant type of life.

Shells Italian Warships.
Tripoli, Nov. 6.—A Turkish battery took up a position on the east front of the Tripoli harbor and shelled the Italian warships anchored in the harbor. The shells caused considerable damage to the Italian warships. The latter replied vigorously.

Italians Will Lose.
London, Nov. 6.—Wireless messages received from Tripoli state that the Turks and Arabs are ready to attack Tripoli and that a crushing defeat for the Italians is inevitable. The messages state the attack was expected hourly. If the Turks and their allies are victorious it will be a blow to the Italian empire.

English Indignation at the butchery has reached a high pitch. Premier Asquith and Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, are severely criticized for prohibiting a discussion of the massacres in parliament and disallowing it is expressed generally with the force.

HAVE DIFFICULTY IN FINISHING MAIN LINE

WHEN C. R. MEN ARE BLASTING G. T. P. WORKMEN, FAR BELOW ARE IN DANGER

Judging from the location of the C.N.R. main line west of the summit of the Yellowhead Pass, between the west end of Moose Lake and the town of Yellowhead, the line swings south to follow the Alberta pass, there is a possibility of the line being completed. It is a series of junctions on behalf of the G.T.P., as long as the list of provisions in the league constitution. If there is to be trouble, which seems very probable, it will start when the C.N.R. commences to cut out the right of way along the mountain sides between mile 27 and mile 47 B.C. for it is almost impossible for their rock cuts and fragments from their rock cuts to fall down on the G.T.P. grade which will be anywhere from 30 feet to 300 feet below them.

The situation is this: The Grand Trunk Pacific line starts to descend toward the bottom of the Fraser Valley with a one per cent grade at the west end of Moose Lake and the town of Yellowhead. This grade which is the heaviest on the whole National Transcontinental system, is made necessary through the fact that the road has to make a descent of more than 1600 feet in the 20 miles between Moose Lake and the town of Yellowhead. On the other hand the C.N.R. has to hold its grade and accordingly must place its line higher up on the descent slope of the Fraser Valley so that it will get down into the hole from which it must climb out again. From the west end of Moose Lake, where both lines cross the Fraser river, the C.N.R. at an elevation of about thirty feet above the G.T.P., the former line uses a seven tenths per cent grade. The difference between the seven tenths and the one per cent grade used by the G.T.P. brings the C.N.R. about 300 feet above the other line where the two part company to go on their respective ways to Prince Rupert and Fort McMurray. Both lines are on the same side of the Fraser river.

There are places on this 20 mile stretch where the G.T.P. will be built on the face of a mountain slope and the C.N.R. will be located 100 feet or more above on the same slope. Imagine if you can the effect of blasting operations on the higher elevation with the C.N.R. line. A similar difficulty has been encountered during the past summer when in the country between the Moose river and the Athabasca the C.N.R. grade ran too close to the G.T.P., endangering the grade of the later line from slides of the former's fill. Injunctions on the C.N.R. contractors were served on these occasions and in some places the work is still unfinished.

There is every probability that injunctions will be utilized freely by the National Transcontinental to protect their grade from dislocated pieces of mountain which the C.N.R. will set falling next summer.

FRASER R. CLAIMS SIXTEEN VICTIMS

MANY TRAGEDIES ON FAST FLOWING STREAM DURING THE PAST SUMMER

No less than sixteen sturdy pioneers have lost their lives during the past summer in the swift and turbulent waters of the Upper Fraser river, according to reports brought to the city by survivors from the west. The names of some who have been lost are unknown. As a rule the tragedies have happened through the captaining of a canoe, but in many cases men have perished by setting themselves the foolish task of reaching Fort George on a frail raft of logs which they have hoped to carry themselves and their provisions.

The lure of the wilderness has drawn many an inexperienced boatman into the fastnesses of central British Columbia by way of Edmonton and the Yellowhead Pass. Emulating the example of the old timers chronicled in the yellow backed story books they have foolishly sought as "Fort George or back." Hoping to have tales of all the more precious adventures to tell when at last they emerged from the woods they reached what proved to be a snare at least, to be the impossible, and paid for the experiment with the loss of their lives.

The story is told of the two young newspaper men from Indiana whose canoe was drowned in the Fraser when they started down the stream from Fort George. They were accompanied by a Peterborough canoe, loaded with all manner of camp equipment, and allowed their craft to drift as it would. The canoe, not making the least effort to control it. At times they were seen broadside the stream. Then their canoe would appear to survivors or railway men on the shore with the stern foremost. The men did not even sit in the bottom of the canoe, but perched themselves on top of the baggage as unaccounted for the dangers of rocks and whirlpools as they possibly could. The result was that a few miles below the cache their boat capsized and both were at the mercy of the deep and rapid stream. One of the men was seen to grasp the canoe's gunwale and reach with the other for his struggling companion. He took hold of his craft but at that same instant his head was cast up on the rocks of the shore.

Until John Kirkup went into the Fraser river country to take charge of the enforcement of law and order for the K. C. government, there was no one to warn to report the loss of lives in the Fraser. Many of the bodies of the sixteen men lost during the summer months have not been recovered. Many of the men passed the construction camps on the mountain section of the G.T.P. in the mysterious silence characteristic of the lumberfoot prospector and no one found out who they were. The travellers asked for nothing and almost invariably those who were found to have perished offered to take any of the good advice offered them by the men who knew.

The victims Fraser river tragedies of the past year undoubtedly will mean unexplained mysteries as to the disappearance of many a grizzled son whose return in the old home back east or across the water will be anxiously awaited.

In the pursuit of its purpose to knock the construction of any railway to the north country unless it be by one of the big three railway corporations, the Bulletin very frequently carries its bellement against the construction of an independent road to the point where, like Marc Anthony's friend, it defeats its own purpose by protesting too much.

In the first place the Bulletin produces a line of argument to the effect that a road to tap the resources of the Lower Athabasca would probably not pay in ten years, and that under such circumstance the province of Alberta would have had to pay the Waterways' interest for ten years, which, by adding the ten years' interest, $3,700,000, to the capital, $7,400,000, the Bulletin wishes its readers to believe would make it cost the province $11,100,000 for the road.

In the second place the Bulletin argues that had the provincial government made a contract for the construction of the road to the north, with either the C. N. R. or the C. G. T. P., the same as it did for the construction of other branch roads in Alberta, the whole of the resources of the C. N. R. and the C. G. T. P. systems could be levied upon to make good the investment before the government would be required to make the repayment of interest on the bonds under the guarantee.

As a matter of fact, the C. N. R. and the G. T. P. branch lines are constructed by branch lines companies which are separate and distinct from the companies which own and operate the trans-continental roads, and the branch roads have no more power to call upon the main line companies to guarantee their interest than has the provincial government to rely on the resources of the dominion for the same purpose. The branch lines companies are self-contained companies, created for the sole purpose of building the branch lines. They are required to stand on their own feet. If they fail so to do they default the interest in such case and the government would take possession of the Toifield-Calgary or the Vegreville-Calgary line in just exactly the same way that it would take possession of the Waterways should that company be allowed to build its road and fail to make good. The parent companies would not, and could not, have anything to do with it whatever.

The whole intent of the Bulletin's argument since the day the Waterways case broke in the legislature has been to spread the belief that the province would be better served by allowing one of the big transportation monopolies to take possession of the north country to the exclusion of any independent company which may chance to undertake the construction of a road which would not be tied up to either the C. N. R., the G. T. P. or the C. P. R., and the outcome of this intent has been that instead of an Edmonton-McMurry road the north country is to be opened by a Battleford-McMurry road.

The underlying purpose of the government in making a deal with an independent company for the construction of a road to the north was to preserve that country from the monopoly which the Big Three, by their division of territory arrangement, work out in all new traffic areas. Had the government not colluded with the Big Three there never would have been any Waterways case and the Bulletin would have accepted the deal, no matter what the conditions, without a murmur. It was not the conditions of the deal which caused the riot in the liberal party, but the fact that the deal was not made with the C. N. R.

ONTARIO LIBERALS FOLLOW ALBERTA'S EXAMPLE

The new platform of the Ontario liberals includes an eight-hour day for miners, workmen's compensation and a revision of the assessment act to allow municipalities to adopt single tax upon demand of the ratepayers.

Both Alberta and Saskatchewan have these principles incorporated in their legislation, the product of liberal administrations. Ontario liberals show themselves possessed of a clear political vision when they undertake to follow the example of this province.

The exercises and festivities in connection with the inauguration will occupy the life week. The inauguration proper will be held in the large lecture hall of the auditorium of the library building University Heights. The installation will be followed in the evening with a formal dinner at the Hotel Astor, at which the President of the University of the Interior Fisher, Presidents of Harvard, Radley of Yale, Chairman of Cornell, and Butler of Columbia, and Senators Root and Burton will be present.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—That the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, which has made history in the Northwest, may be abolished so far as Dominion control is concerned, is a possibility which is being given the province autonomous control of its public lands by the Government. The proposal, which is not considered probable in certain circles, is being discussed in Ottawa.

At the present time the Dominion government and the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan are in dispute for the upkeep of the force, which now numbers less than 600 men, in comparison with the 1,000 men of the Alberta and Saskatchewan were made part of the great Northwest Territory.

"There is one thing," stated G. Fred White, comptroller of the R.N. W.M.P. department, in discussing the proposal, "the Government of Canada will not be increased. I have not yet decided whether the force will be placed in the ministerial head of the department and in direct control, and so am not in a position to say whether or not it shall have a conference with him on his return from Halifax, but as yet, I am not in a position to say whether or not I have an opportunity of some time

If the provinces secure control of the Dominion lands within their boundaries, the necessity of the Dominion contributing to the enforcement of law and order will, it is considered, be eliminated as the provinces will likely do as the province of Ontario has done. To establish a provincial constabulary, there will then remain to be patrolled only the Yukon and the Northwest territory, which is likely to be further reduced by the extension of the boundaries of the province of Manitoba. This would mean the creation of a situation of that famous band of men who have made history for so many years in the west.

WE have now an exhibition and sale TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH OF TURKISH AND PERSIAN HAND MADE RUGS. They are here on consignment from the largest dealers in Oriental Rugs in the world. Each one shows in plain figures the price at which this dealer insisted that the rugs should be sold at—and they are not the usual exorbitant prices either. We have, however, been granted the special privilege of selling them at exactly one-half the marked price. The rugs are of the highest quality, and for every purpose, old and new, and of the best hold good for three days, commencing Tuesday, November 7th. The following list briefly indicates the quality, sizes, and prices:

HEARTH RUGS
Moussol2.0 x 4.0 to 2.7 x 5.5.....	$10 to $35

The Sale means, of course, that you can buy a $450.00 Rug for $225.00 and a $10.00 Rug for $5.00 with every price between these two extremes bearing the same 50 per cent. reduction. It is simply lowering the cost of these magnificent Rugs to the level of the ordinary machine-made Carpet, which at best will only wear a few years, whereas an Oriental Rug is practically indestructible; their colorings are imperishable and time and use only adds to their beauty. They will be worn with their full value in any market for years to come. If buying from an investment standpoint, the Rugs bought at this Sale beat Diamonds or even Edmonton Real Estate; our advice is:

Don't Miss This Opportunity

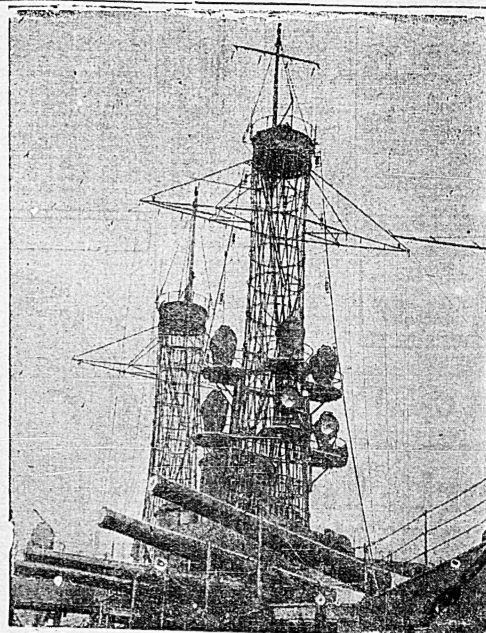

Our eleven Show Windows will be given up to a display of these Rugs today and tonight. Sale begins tomorrow morning at 8.30.

Our Guarantee

We want to assure you that these Rugs will be sold as authentic creations and true productions of that wonderful and zealously guarded art of pre-historic days, and if you buy one and have any reason to feel dissatisfied afterwards, you have only to mention the fact to us and the full purchase price will be refunded without question or quibble.

(Western Associated Press.)
Windsor, Nov. 6.—The unions interested in the trouble on the Grand Trunk Pacific have been notified by the labor department that the report of the board of conciliation is unanimous and the department asks if the men will abide with its findings.
James Souerville said tonight that the men are not prepared to say what they will do until the company announces its stand in reply to what the department will likely ask if in the same way as of the men.
It is understood, however, that the men are satisfied with the report but they are not ready to go back but will the company accepts the report or makes considerable concessions to it.

ROWELL WILL RUN IN NORTH OXFORD

EAST ELGIN SEAT IS ALSO OFFERED NEW LEADER OF ONTARIO LIBERALS.

(Western Associated Press.)
Toronto, Nov. 6.—It is likely that N. W. Rowell, the new Liberal leader, will find a safe seat in North Oxford where Mr. Mackay, the present member is said to be willing to drop out of politics. His majority in 1908 was 102.
J. C. Elliott, M.P. for West Middlesex and Valentine Stock, M.P. for South Perth, were approached with the suggestion that one of them should give way to the new leader but both emphatically answered "No."
The leader's manifesto is not yet ready for publication but will probably be issued either Monday or Tuesday while a fuller exposition of the party policy will be given by Mr. Rowell at a mass meeting at Massey Hall on Tuesday, November 14, which will open the Liberal campaign in Toronto.

Offered East Elgin Seat.
St. Thomas, Nov. 6.—It is now almost certain that Daniel McIntyre of St. Thomas who accepted the Liberal nomination for the Legislature for East Elgin a couple of weeks ago will not enter the fight and the executive will probably invite W. W. Rowell, R.C., the new Liberal leader to accept the nomination.

TRADE GOOD IN BUSINESS CENTRES

STEADY PROGRESS BEING MADE IN ALL LINES IN CANADIAN CITIES.

New York, Nov. 6.—According to dispatches last week to Dun's Review from branch offices of H. G. Dun & Co. in leading trade centres, steady progress is being made in all lines.
Montreal reports that colder weather has helped retail trade in dry goods and clothing and wholesale houses are receiving a good volume of orders and inquiries from shoe manufacturers are more frequent. Wholesale grocers are busy with shipments by troops to rivers and rail points. Cheese shipments have been moderate and exports of butter show some revival.
At Toronto, business in wholesale is well maintained. A large spring trade in dry goods is anticipated and large orders are being booked. Groceries are quiet, with little change in prices, while hardware and furniture are moving freely with iron rather easier. Leather is quiet and firm. The wheat market is lower for Manitoba, but firm for Ontario.

Full business in London is reported in the very satisfactory clothing manufacturers are especially busy, orders being considerably in excess of last year and the outlook good. Farm products are moving more freely at unchanged prices.
Hamilton reports that colder weather has improved retail trade, especially in wearing apparel, and in line the movement is generally ahead of a year ago.

In the far west and the Northwest the situation generally satisfactory, as the shipping returns in many districts where damage was reported are better than expected.

Winnipeg reports that retail trade showed further revival this week, while wholesale dealings are seasonably active.

At Regina the weather has improved and business operations are in full swing, with better results than expected.

Saskatoon reports improved collections and business well under way.
At Edmonton autumn business is showing up well and the movement of merchandise at wholesale is large. Gross earnings of all Canadian railroads reporting to date for October show an increase of 16.4 per cent, as compared with the earnings of the same month for the corresponding period last year. Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada last week were 27, against 25 last week and 16 the same week a year ago.

SUSPECTED BANK ROBBER IN JAIL

AUSTRIAN BELIEVED TO BE CONNECTED WITH NEW WESTMINSTER BANK ROBBERY

Vancouver, Nov. 6.—The police have under arrest John Bodie, an Austrian, aged 26, charged with being one of the parties concerned in the robbery of the Bank of Montreal, Westminster, September 11, when a sum of $250,000 was taken. He had the money $1,000 in cash bills, was asked by the police to give an account of himself. He was charged with carrying a gun.
His alibi was of such a nature, that he was at once taken into custody and he was searched the sum of seven hundred dollars was found in his possession. On his way to the station he said there he gave several other accounts of his movements and mentioned that he was a resident of a city here. Today in his room at the hotel his effects were searched and the sum of $1,000 in Bank of Montreal bills was there discovered. The bills were in all denominations and were.
A companion, J. Bodie, is held for the present on a charge of vagrancy. The arrest of others, including Bodie, is being expected.

SOME CHINESE NAMES.

The following table of Chinese words appearing in news despatches, may help readers to follow with a clearer understanding of the progress of the revolutionary movement in the flower kingdom:
Tsun—Prince
Tsun Wang—Prince of the blood
Tsun—Clan, or family
Nai Ko—Privy Council
Tsun (Tsun)—Viceroy, or ruler of a province
Footai—Governor of a province
Tsun—Chief military officer of a province
Tsun—Governor of a city
Shan-Tung—Province east of the mountain
Shan—Hill or mountain
Shan—Imperial
Shan—Officer, where official business is transacted
Foo—A city of the first class
Tung—A city of the second class
Fung—A city of the third class
Fung—A city of a dependent province which constituted a remarkable feature of the movement. Li Ping Sou is the responsible head of the new administration in the native city, and suburbs and is now engaged in completing his organization. He informed the correspondent that he recognized only the republic of Han and would guarantee order. The only disorderly elements, he said, now in China are the former officials and the Manchus troops.

There is reason to believe that the revolutionary sentiment throughout the south strongly favors the unconditional abdication of the Emperor and the establishment of an entirely new regime.
Yuan Shi Kai still adheres to the Manchus. He might become head of the government, and receive universal support if he separated himself from his former alliance. There is, however, a growing suspicion and distrust of Yuan Shi Kai. The present plans for a republic include complete control of the Yau Tse Kiang. Admiral Sah is now crippled and cut off from his base.

The revolutionary leaders are determined to avoid bloodshed and secure the peaceful capitulation of the Manchus troops in the various southern towns. Huan Shi, the revolutionary leader in the Yang Tse Delta, arrived in the native city of Shanghai yesterday by motor car. Today he was engaged with other chiefs in a conference.
Reports reaching here state that the Manchus troops of Hang Chow and So Chow have refused to surrender to the insurgents who offered immunity, and the revolutionary forces immediately began a bombardment.
Gunboats Join Rebels.

Shanghai, Nov. 6.—Three Chinese gunboats, forming part of Admiral Sah's fleet which went over to the rebels this morning.
Chinese telegraph operators have been on strike today. Cables have not been worked, foreign mariners are guarding cable huts. It is believed Admiral Sah is in hiding in this city, along Kiang, in the province of Kiang Su, fell at 2 o'clock this afternoon. All is quiet there. It is reported that the rebels are about 150,000.
Changhai, capital of the province of Chekiang, was taken by the rebels yesterday after a brief but spirited resistance.

sign secretary's explanation that Great Britain could not interfere in Tripoli consistently with the declaration of neutrality.
"We have declared our neutrality as far as warlike preparations are concerned," he says, "but our declaration does not free us of our responsibility. When the war between Italy and Turkey broke out, we had to take up arms to regularize her achievements. We will have to ask our consul to denounce the Treaty of Paris by which she with ourselves guaranteed the integrity of the Ottoman empire. That consent need not be given unconditionally and the foreign office might hint that it would be withheld if the war were not conducted according to the recognized rules and dictates of humanity."

Denies Allegations.
The Turkish ambassador at London denies the allegations of Italian correspondents of the human papers, "that the surrender of arms could only have been carried on by force."
"It is obvious," he says, "that the surrender of arms could only have been carried on by force. It is obvious that the surrender of arms could only have been carried on by force. It is obvious that the surrender of arms could only have been carried on by force."

Telegrams today from Alexandria and Cairo said that Egypt was in a state of unrest and there was a rising sentiment in favor of sending large expeditions to Tripoli to aid the Turks. There have been several riots among the students at Alexandria who have solicited their arms, "Long live the Sultan, death to the Italians."

Facts Are Suppressed.
Malta, Nov. 6.—A newspaper correspondent arriving here from the city of Tripoli, makes the assertion that the Italian government has wholly misrepresented the situation there and by the exercise of a censorship even more severe than that which Japan presented in the Russo-Japanese war has prevented information of the real state of affairs from getting to the outside world.

The correspondent makes the startling assertion that the Italian troops in Tripoli and its vicinity more than 1,000 men killed and wounded, and that the Turks have lost more than 1,000 men. He says that the Italian troops are in a position to capture the city of Tripoli in less than one half of the ground they held three weeks ago.

The Turks are on a better war footing than the outside world was permitted to know and have extended their lines in such a manner and have so disposed their forces of Arab cavalry and native infantry men that the Italians are virtually prisoners, as far as the land position is concerned in the city of Tripoli.

DOMINION WHEAT WINS SHAUGHNESSY'S GOLD

Something decidedly new is the exhibit of the passenger department of the Canadian Pacific railway. At exhibition of this sort, the railways are constantly competing with each other in putting out something new and unique and there is therefore much competition between them, most of which will have the most novel and attractive results.
Canadian Pacific Exhibit.
W. T. Hobson, general advertising agent of the Canadian Pacific has been in New York for some days superintending the erection of a huge photograph of the Canadian Pacific fleet, which will be the main feature of the exhibit of the passenger department. This well known picture of the fleet of 1877-78 has been enlarged from eight to ten feet, seven feet by eleven feet, ten inches, in the background of the booth and in the daytime it is lit by a reflector light at the top of the frame, at night by an arrangement of electric lights at the rear of the picture, all statestons, port holes, masts and funnels are clearly visible and made to shine as though the ships were really at sea and the passengers are invited to enter their heartiest congratulations to the Canadian Pacific railway, which is the only one of the world's great railways that has a fleet of ships.

TIGERS WIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF ALBERTA

ESKIMOS ARE OUTCLASSED
BY THE CALGARY TIGERS

In the Best Game of the Season the Tigers Won Out by 13 to 0—Bull Ritchie Mainly Responsible for the Victory

For the third consecutive season the Tigers of Calgary are the winners of the Big Four, and champions of Alberta. They accomplished their third success on Saturday at Calgary when they beat the Edmonton Eskimos by 13 points to 0, without the semblance of a fiasco, playing better football from the start to the finish.

A fair estimate of the game would be to say that the Tigers' victory consisted of 60 per cent. better football, 30 per cent. luck and 10 per cent. immunity from accidents. While only two Tigers were laid out, nine Eskimos received injuries, putting Drummond and Hardisty out of the game. Apart from these minor reasons, one man alone was the pivot around which the Tiger victory swung and that man was Bull Ritchie. Playing at centre scrum with his 250 lbs. of solid beef, he bucked the line so successfully that the Eskimo quarter back had absolutely no chance to get the ball away before he was smothered. The Eskimo team were unable to hold him and they are not entirely to blame for there are mighty few teams in Canada today that could hold the Tiger line-up of Saturday with Bull Ritchie at centre scrum. Of course, Ritchie had to have assistance, and he got it from Warke, who played a brilliant game. In the third quarter he pulled off a dandy 40-yard run, beating Eskimo after Eskimo until he had only Tommy Dykes to pass, but Tommy was there with the goods and brought him down with a good tackle. Again there was a critical moment in the game that may have made all the difference in the world, or it may not, but the Eskimos think it would. Just before the end of the second quarter, O'Donahue got the ball and set up space for a fifty-yard run and a touch down behind the posts and the Eskimos were rejuvenated, but the line-men, Mr. Michaels, of the Eskimos ruled that O'Donahue stepped over the touch line and the play was disallowed. Had the play counted, it would have evened up the score to 6 points all in addition to bucking up the Eskimos, whereas in the third quarter the effect was visible, it had knocked most of the ginger out of them. The Eskimos got a "bonus" in this quarter when Ford went in for Handley, the former performing in such a spectacular manner that Deacon yanked him out after about seven minutes and put Drummond in.

In criticizing the individual players, it would be tedious to pick out many in the Tiger line-up. They played as a unit. Their signals worked well and their plays were successful. They introduced several new plays, one in particular a lone pass from the quarter back to the extreme wing, looking very good. It is peculiar that Deacon loss had his men practising this particular play all season and they had it down pat, when Mac Dawson got put out of business and could not play, necessitating another man starting in they got wise. They were unwise to use it on Saturday, because Bull Ritchie had the quarter smothered all the time. Warke, Dobie, "Squib" Ross and Bull Ritchie were the backbone of the Tigers. For the Eskimos Captain Tommy Dykes was the star player. He was on the job all the time from start to finish, his tackling being particularly good. Hardisty played well while he was in the game. Bob Wilson and Taylor gave a good account

ALBERTA 'VARSITY
BEATEN AT CALGARY

Calgary, Nov. 5.—High school-avenued Thanksgiving Day's defeat at the hands of the Alberta University when they defeated them Saturday forenoon, 6 to 3, at Hillhurst field. The game was perhaps the best college rugby contest of the season, and was decided when Shearer, of high school, caught a loose ball on Alberta's 20 yard line and carried it over for a touchdown. Aside from that the play was fairly even, the speed and dash of the Calgary lads offsetting the superior weight of the Varsity players.

The first point was made late in the first half, when Dietz roused the ball, kicking high school one point. The second half had not been in progress three minutes when Shearer added 5 points with his unconverted touchdown. English made two more points later in the same quarter, making the score 6 to 2, which stood to the end. During the last quarter high school played a defensive and kicking game, content to hold the score.

The high school backs played good ball, and Hebble at wing was a power in defense. For the Strathcona team, Captain Dyke, Dietz and Carscadden performed well.

The line-up: High school—Fullback, English; halves, Dingle, McLaughlin; sinelars; quarter, Lindner; scrummers, Barker, Poir, Linsford; inside wings, Dryden, Shearer; middle wings, Sheehy, Wright; outside wings, McDonald, Hamman.

Alberta university—Fullback, Jackson; halves, Dietz, Doyle, Mahman; quarter, Butler; scrummers, Bell, Glensville, White; inside wings, Drysdale, Bush; middle wings, Marshall, Carscadden; outside wings, Clarke, Hebble.

Referee—W. Ross.

Judge of Play—V. Graham.

Timekeeper—L. W. Melod.

ANNUAL SPORTS AT
ALBERTA COLLEGEEXCELLENT MEET AT CITY'S ATH-LETIC PARK IN CONNECTION WITH ANNUAL SPORTS

Strathcona, Nov. 6.—The holding of a field day of sports on November the first is an occurrence not often recorded in Alberta but yesterday saw a splendid series of contests run at the city's athletic park by the students and faculty of Alberta college.

The annual sports day in connection with their annual sports day. Both the Strathcona and Edmonton colleges participated in the program and a special street car brought over a large contingent of students from Edmonton in the afternoon.

The bright sunshine made the competitions in the early part of the afternoon exceedingly pleasant but when the hour reached on toward five o'clock the keen evening air struck through the warm clothing of the spectators and the conditions were certainly none too favorable for athletics. However, some of the racing was very good and the records established at the annual sports last year were either equalled yesterday or crowded hard. One of the best races of the afternoon was the half mile relay as at the final event.

The teams made a close struggle and the time of 1:45 must be regarded as good when the weather and track conditions are taken into account.

The prizes for the Alberta College sports were nearly all contributed by the merchants of Strathcona and the array as displayed in the windows of Blain and company comprised a number of trophies of excellent value. The sports were well conducted by a capable staff of officials among whom was Secretary J. W. Ward of the Edmonton Athletic Club.

The list of successful competitors follows:

100 Yard dash—1, Taylor; 2, Cameron; 3, Polymark.

50 Yard Ladies' race—1, Miss McVittie; 2, Miss Toddhunter; 3, Miss Evers.
